Reserve Bank of Australia Media Release Update to Sanctions Against (the former) Yugoslavia

On 10 October 2007, the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA) issued a media release regarding changes to the list of individuals associated with the former government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia who are subject to financial sanctions under the Banking (Foreign Exchange) Regulations 1959. This information circular should be read in conjunction with AUSTRAC Information Circular No. 44 regarding the RBA's administration of these and other current sanctions.

A copy of the media release of 10 October 2007 is attached and can also be viewed on the RBA's website at http://www.rba.gov.au/MediaReleases/2007/mr_07_18.html.

The updated list of individuals associated with the former government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia can be viewed at http://www.rba.gov.au/MediaReleases/2007/mr_07_18_annex.html.

Regulated entities should take the attached document into account when considering whether particular transactions should be reported to AUSTRAC as suspicious. Where a transaction is reportable under the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988 (FTR Act) as a significant cash transaction and/or an international funds transfer instruction, regulated entities should remember that a suspect transaction report may be required in addition to the other report type(s) where grounds for suspicion exist.

Suspect transaction reports should be made via EDDWeb, or on Suspect Transaction Report Form 16. For urgent reporting, EDDWeb logon information, or to order paper reporting forms, contact the AUSTRAC Help Desk (details below).

The Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC) is Australia's anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing regulator and specialist financial intelligence unit, originally established under the FTR Act and continued in existence by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act).

Reserve Bank of Australia

Media Release

10 October 2007

2007/18

BANKING (FOREIGN EXCHANGE) REGULATIONS 1959 SANCTIONS AGAINST THE (FORMER) FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF YUGOSLAVIA – AMENDMENT TO THE ANNEX

The Reserve Bank of Australia, following a directive from the Australian Government under the Banking (Foreign Exchange) Regulations 1959, currently administers financial sanctions against certain individuals associated with the former government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

The Australian Government has reviewed the list of individuals subject to financial sanctions and has directed the Reserve Bank to add one new individual to the Annex of names, and amend the details of another individual. The updated Annex now contains 82 names.

Any transactions involving the transfer of funds or payments to, by the order of, or on behalf of any person listed in the Annex are prohibited without prior approval from the Reserve Bank.
